America's Future Get In The Fight Texas Campaign to Combat Child Exploitation and Trafficking will be held in Fort Worth, Feb. 23-24

Get In The Fight state campaigns are locally-based educational programs established to build a nationwide network of informed citizens to help end the war on children in America.

Florida – February 8, 2024 – America's Future, Inc., a national leader in the fight to preserve individual rights, promote American values and traditions, and protect the nation's Constitutional Republic, announced that its next Get In The Fight campaign to raise awareness, educate, and mobilize local residents and communities to help end child exploitation and trafficking is scheduled for Fort Worth, Texas on February 23 and 24, 2024, at the Birchman Baptist Church, 9100 N Normandale St. Texas residents and others interested in attending the two-day event are encouraged to register early to secure their seats. The Texas campaign is part of America's Future Project Defend & Protect Our Children (PDPC) nationwide initiative to build a grassroots community of informed Americans across the country armed with the facts, knowledge, and tools to help end the war on children. America's Future coordinates Get In The Fight state campaigns with local advocates and individuals in each state. The state campaigns include an evening summit with a panel of experts and leaders with first-hand experience in the areas of trafficking prevention and rescue and recovery of trafficked victims and survivor services and assistance, followed the next day with a series of training programs and seminars, specifically tailored for individuals, parents and professionals in multiple industries, first responders, and others.

On February 23, the Texas campaign will begin at 6 p.m. with a showing of the highly acclaimed movie Into The Light, directed by Mike Smith, an America's Future Board Director, followed by a summit panel moderated by Lara Logan, an award-winning investigative journalist, who is also on the Board of America's Future. Summit panelists include Bazzel Baz, founder and president of the Association for the Recovery of Children (ARC); Tara Lee Rodas, HHS whistleblower; Tina Baz, ARC Human Trafficking Program Director; Jaeson Jones, CEO of Omni Intelligence, and Liz Crokin, investigative journalist and author. General Mike Flynn, America's Future Board Chair, is also scheduled to give remarks.

The training programs on February 24 will run from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. Among the courses taught by experienced instructors include seminars for healthcare professionals, parents and caring adults, first responders and real estate professionals, and overcomers. Other training programs include sessions on “Navigating the Emerging Threat of Sextortion,” “Artificial Intelligence and Media Manipulation,” and a program specially designed for teenagers 14 years old and older, “Just For Teens - Healthy, Unhealthy, Toxic Relationships.”

In addition, a seminar on federal, state, and local legal resources and regulations governing child exploitation and trafficking is offered. This course introduces a uniquely designed digital resource library of laws, hotlines, and other important information created especially for Texas residents.

Get In The Fight Texas is the fourth state campaign held by America’s Future. Hundreds of people have attended state summits and training programs in Florida, Michigan, and Illinois thus far. Following the Texas campaign this month, campaigns are scheduled for Washington State on April 26-27, Pennsylvania on May 17-18, and Ohio on June 14-15, with more states in the planning stage for 2024. As an extension of the America’s Future Get In The Fight campaigns and in cooperation with ARC, six-day “Fight Child Sex Trafficking Comprehensive Equipping Course” training programs are scheduled regionally. The next program will be held from March 11-16 in Highland, Indiana.

Individuals or organizations interested in coordinating a Get In The Fight campaign in their states are invited to email Lisa MacDonald, America’s Future Director of Strategic Planning, at lisa@AmericasFuture.net.
